Community News

October is here, and you can feel the energy all around East Village! Living at ALX means being right in the middle of the action, and with Petco Park just steps away, the postseason buzz is especially exciting as the Padres advance to the NLDS. Beyond baseball, fall brings cooler evenings, pumpkin patches, seasonal events, and plenty of reasons to get out and enjoy San Diego. Keep reading for a few of our favorite ways to make the most of October close to home!

Thanks For Joining Last Month

Grill & Chill

We closed out September the best way we know how—with good food and even better company! The grills were blazing with burgers, bratwursts, hot dogs, and veggie burgers, plus all the toppings, chips, cookies, raffles, and so many ALX residents joining the fun. A special thanks to AT&T for their support. Thank you to everyone who came out to Grill & Chill and made it such a great night!

What They're Saying

Anthony S.

"I've lived at ALX for the past 14 months, and overall, it has been a great experience. Shelby and the rest of the team have been incredible throughout my entire time here. They've always been friendly, professional, responsive, and willing to help whenever I needed anything.

I also want to give a special shoutout to Larry from maintenance. He's been amazing — always helpful, reliable, and quick to take care of anything that came up.

I really appreciate the entire ALX team and the way they've treated me throughout my journey here. It's the people who make a community, and the team at ALX definitely made my experience a positive one. I would absolutely recommend ALX to anyone looking for a place to call home!"

Live Well

Día de Los Muertos

Día de Los Muertos festivities return to Old Town San Diego beginning October 1 and culminating in a three-day celebration from October 31 through November 2. Explore more than 40 unique altars, enjoy art and family-friendly activities at Old Town San Diego State Historic Park, browse the street market, and experience the annual candlelit procession and Catrina Contest. A beautiful way to celebrate tradition, community, and culture in San Diego this fall.
